

Apī Te Uki Ou

Fundraising and Canvassing Policy

CIAG # 4

Akakoro'anga (Purpose)

Te Uki Ou School recognises that it is necessary to engage in fundraising activities to ensure the school has adequate funds for its operation.

Te au Kaveinga (Guidelines)

- Upon enrolment of a child into school, families sign an agreement to support the school. One area of support is through participation in school fundraising, refer to Apī Te Uki Ou Fees Commitment agreement.
- All school fundraising activities are endorsed by the Board of Governors (BOG) and communicated to the school community. The sole beneficiary for these fundraising activities is "Apī Te Uki Ou".
- The Board does not allow the school to be used as a medium to transmit transactions for commercial gain for an individual, community or commercial agency.
- Any persons who wish to engage Apī Te Uki Ou to promote, advertise or canvass their products in any way or form must first approach the Principal, who will then liaise with the BOG, and in accordance with school policy, should the Principal consider that further exploration of a venture is merited.
- Any major fundraising activities to support charitable activities must be approved by the BOG.
- The BOG encourages the school community to present ideas that will generate funds solely for the school.
- The school community is discouraged from using the school to participate in any fundraising activities where the school is not the sole benefactor.
- Approved charities are the exception to this, where it is considered by the BOG that the purpose and process of giving assistance benefits our students in other ways.
